August 31, 2011, Auburn Hills, Mich. - Jeep® Liberty soldiers on for 2012 continuing its reputation for rugged off-road capability and over-all utility. For 2012, enhancements have been made that keep the legendary Jeep heritage intact, while providing even more options and value to the customer.

2012 Jeep Liberty is available in three models – Sport, Limited, and Limited Jet. Sport models will now be available with Uconnect Hands-free with Voice Command, universal garage door opener, compass and exterior temperature in the gauge cluster, an overhead console, and SIRIUS/XM Satellite Radio (Canada only). Parksense Rear Park Assist (delayed availability) will also be available on all Liberty trim levels.

2012 Jeep Liberty Limited Jet models have a lower Manufacturer's Suggested Retail Price (MSRP) of $26,960, a reduction of $795 from 2011 models. Liberty Sport models have an MSRP of $23,360 and Limited models start at $26,760. Prices do not include a $795 destination charge.

2012 Jeep Liberty models are available with new color offerings (delayed availability): Mineral Gray Metallic, Canyon Brown Pearl, Rescue Green Pearl, True Blue Pearl and Black Forest Green Pearl

Jeep Liberty remains true to its legendary 4x4 heritage by offering two Jeep Trail Rated® four-wheel-drive systems – Command-Trac II® and Selec-Trac II®. Command-Trac II® is a part-time four-wheel-drive system, which is the standard 4WD configuration. Command-Trac II operates in 2WD, 4WD Lock, 4 WD Low and Neutral.

The optional Selec-Trac II® is a full-time, active on-demand four-wheel-drive system. Select-Trac II operates in 2WD, 4WD Auto, 4WD Low and Neutral. The Liberty features independent front suspension with rack-and-pinion steering and a five-link rear suspension.

A 3.7-liter V-6 engine is standard on all Jeep Liberty models. The 3.7-liter engine produces 210 horsepower (157 kW) @ 5,200 rpm and 235 lb.-ft. (319 N•m) of torque @ 4,000 rpm.

Liberty's exterior takes on a rugged, classic Jeep look that captivates and broadens its consumer appeal. Jeep's Sky Slider® full-length open-canvas roof is an industry exclusive and gives the Liberty that "have fun out there" open-air Jeep brand experience. Remote start, memory seats, power mirrors and express up/down windows are part of the available features and options.

Jeep Liberty is designed to appeal to customers who are looking for Jeep 4x4 capability as well as comfort and convenience. It is targeted to young couples and new families, as well as professional, young singles between 30 and 40 years of age, balanced male to female. Jeep Liberty owners balance day-to-day responsibilities with their passion for adventure as well as the outdoors. They are athletic, and pursue activities that combine their various interests with their active lifestyle.
