April 30, 2015, Mexico City - Total month sales of FCA México were of 7,474 units in April, a 16 percent sales increase compared with April 2014.

"Last month the Saltillo Assembly Plant celebrated its 20th anniversary," said Bruno Cattori, President and CEO of FCA México. "In this plant, Ram Truck brand products are manufactured and sold all around the world with excellent quality standards. Based on this, we decided to make an advertising campaign called 'Values,' where we recognize the integrity, perseverance and tenacity of Mexican labor. Also, the Ram brand saw one of the largest sales increases versus last year.

"Besides the advertising campaign, we launched the new Alfa Romeo Giulietta with the automatic transmission. This new version has had great acceptance, as well as the new Fiat 500L, which continues posting great numbers," Cattori said.

Alfa Romeo Brand

Alfa Romeo brand sales grew 88 percent with 15 units sold. It was the brand's best April since its launch, due to the recently launched Alfa Romeo Giulietta with an automatic transmission. It offers the best combination of performance and fuel efficiency, delivering 0-100 km/h in the low six-second range.
